

JACK HUNT SCHOOL PROM SPECIAL

YEAR 11

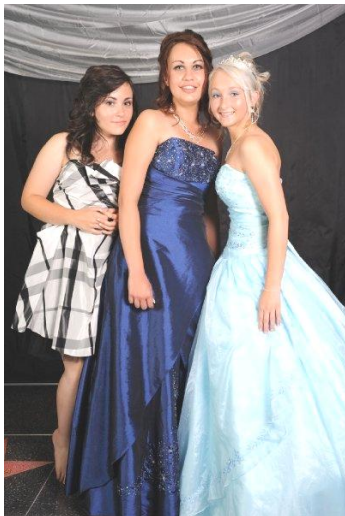

July 2009

Hollywood meets Bollywood was the theme for this year's Year 11 Prom and it did not disappoint. The students glammed and dressed up and made their way to the venue which had been transformed into Hollywood on Oscar night.

Props had been brought in from set designers in London and included giant Oscars and film reels, the catering was Bollywood, the chocolate fountain was flowing, and the DJ played from a set list chosen by the students.

Over 230 students and staff arrived looking spectacular. They voted for the Prom King and Queen - Razwan Hanif and Rebecca Lodge - who were crowned on giant thrones. Everyone danced the night away (the line dancing was a sight to behold) and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.

It was the culmination of a year's hard work in fund raising and organisation led by the Prom Committee. I would like to thank everyone for their help and support with the Prom especially Elaine Ward, Sue Johnstone and Alex Ford behind the bars, Richard Blant for filming the night and Martin Walker for helping pull off the "night of the year" as one student put it.

A film of the night and a Yearbook is available in DVD format which is being sold in the school shop, so to relive the night and year - get one soon!
